

Alina BÂRGĂOANU

PhD, Professor, Dean of the Faculty of Communication and Public Relations, the National University of Political Studies and Public Administration (Romania); member of the High-Level Expert Group on Fake News and Digital Disinformation, European Commission; Jean Monnet chair holder “EU Communication and the Public Sphere” and “Communicating Europe. Policies for Increasing EU’s Visibility among Member States”; author, co-author and editor of several EU-related books, among which: Why Europe. Narratives and Counter-Narratives of European Integration (Peter Lang, 2017), United by or Against Euroscepticism. An Assessment of Public Attitudes towards the EU in the Context of the Crisis (Cambridge Scholars, 2015), The Crisis of the European Union. Identity, Citizenship and Solidarity Reassessed (2013), Comunicarea în Uniunea Europeană. Modele teoretice și aspecte practice [Communication in the European Union. Theoretical Models and Practical Aspects] (2011), Examenul Schengen. În căutarea sferei publice europene [The Schengen Exam. In Search of the European Public Sphere] (2011); founder and director of the online opinion journal Convorbiri Europene (www.convorbirieuropene.ro); Fulbright scholar (2001- 2002).